LAS VEGAS (February 27, 2023) – Tee up your support for the International Center for Responsible Gaming (ICRG) at the 24th Annual AGEM & AGA Golf Classic Presented by JCM Global. The Golf Classic is one of the gaming industry's most popular events, and this year's tournament is scheduled for May 3, 2023, at Cascata Golf Club in Boulder City, Nevada.

The Golf Classic benefits the ICRG's mission to advance research, education, and awareness for responsible gaming. As gaming expands, so does the need for responsible gaming research, and that makes this annual fundraiser more important than ever.

Registration for the event is now open. Sponsorships and player positions are available on a first-come, first-sold basis and are selling quickly. Art Paikowsky, president of the ICRG, emphasized the importance of the yearly contribution from the golf classic. "The ICRG is so grateful to AGA, AGEM, and JCM Global for making this support possible. Every donation to ICRG brings us closer to developing effective responsible gambling programs that will help prevent gambling disorder."

"It is our honor to present the Golf Classic and help advance the ICRG's impactful research into important topics like sports wagering, lottery, and more," said JCM SVP of Sales, Marketing & Operations Dave Kubajak. "We are grateful to the gaming industry for their generous support over the past 24 years."

The Golf Classic attracts players and sponsors from across the gaming industry spectrum. Major sponsors include the Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM), the American Gaming Association (AGA), and JCM Global. GGB Magazine is returning as media sponsor.
