JCM Global Names Two New Distributors in UK Arcade/AGC Market for its Ticket2Go® TITO Solution

DÜSSELDORF, Germany (30 June 2015) – Moving to provide even better service to its rapidly growing Ticket2Go® TITO business, JCM Global has named two new distributors in the UK arcade/AGC market.

Eurocoin and Town & County Leisure will work directly with arcade and AGC operators across the UK to supply the Ticket2Go solution, improving cashbox take for operators and significantly reducing operational efficiency in their locations.

JCM has an existing distributor relationship with Eurocoin, one of Europe's most experienced TITO suppliers, and the company acts as distributor for JCM's gaming product portfolio across the EMEA region. Town & County Leisure is a UK based operator and part of the I.O.A. (Independent Operators Association) and is very experienced in TITO installations.

JCM's Ticket2Go is a standalone TITO system specifically designed for the Arcade/AGC/Bingo markets. These types of markets typically operate machines that are not capable of supporting the established TITO protocols commonly used in the casino and VLT markets.

Ticket2Go offers a safe, secure and easy to use solution that has been deployed with a variety of AGC, operators over the past two years. The UK GBG (Gambling Business Group)'s new definition of new TITO standards are supported by Ticket2Go and have been successfully deployed with several of the leading UK based AGC Operators.

Ticket2Go also provides a retrofit solution that allows older machines to be converted to operate onto the same TITO platform, allowing players to seamlessly move between the various technologies in the AGC & Bingo environments.

More information about Ticket2Go and on JCM's entire product portfolio is available at jcmglobal.com.
