JCM Global Enters Into New Agreement with TNSi Europe GmbH To Deliver World-class Currency Solutions to EMEA Transportation and Ticketing Industries

DÜSSELDORF, Germany (6 September 2012) – JCM Global, a leading currency solutions and automatic transactions provider, has entered into an agreement with leading currency handling company TNSi Europe GmbH to provide world-class currency solutions to the transportation industry throughout the EMEA region.

Under terms of the agreement, JCM will provide its award-winning currency transaction products to the transportation and ticketing industries, business segments where TNSi Europe already has a large footprint.

TNSi Europe GmbH is the European subsidiary of Japan-based Toyo Networks & System Integration Co., Ltd., formerly known as TOYOCOM, which specializes in restaurant kiosk terminals, payment terminals, top-up terminals for IC cards, and banknote acceptors recyclers for ticketing (transport) markets.

JCM Global EMEA General Manager Payam Zadeh said, “TNSi Europe is known throughout the entire EMEA region for its great solutions in the transportation and ticketing industries, as JCM is known for our award-winning products in the gaming industry. Now working together, JCM and TNSi will bring world-class solutions to the transportation and ticketing industries, creating tremendous benefits for operators and even better ease-of-use for end-consumers.”
