Territory Sales Manager David Wafle will help JCM Global clients in Connecticut, Maine, New Jersey, New York and Canada. He has extensive experience in the gaming industry. Most recently, he was Senior Regional Manager for Game Sales for Aristocrat Technologies, where he guided Aristocrat's initial entrance into the Quebec marketplace. New JCM Global Sales Executive Tobin Scott will assist JCM customers in Idaho, Oregon, Montana and Washington. Scott has a wealth of experience in the gaming and leisure market, most recently serving as Account Executive for IGT, representing the company's products from throughout northern California and Oregon.

Jerry Pittmon joins JCM Global's world-renowned Service Team as Customer Service Manager. Pittmon has a diverse background in training and organization management, including a master's degree in Organizational Management from University of Phoenix. His professional life has included terms as Senior Technical Trainer, Casino Services Supervisor and Technical Training Supervisor with IGT and as a First Sergeant in the Component Repair Squadron of the U.S. Air Force.

"It's about having the best," said JCM Global VP of Sales Mark Henderson. "The best customers deserve the best products, the best sales and the best service, and adding David, Tobin and Jerry to the JCM Global team builds on JCM's tradition of accepting nothing less than the best."
