JCM DONATES $30,000.00 TO KATRINA RELIEF EFFORTS

Member Association Also Donates $50,000.00

LAS VEGAS (September 13, 2005) – JCM American's worldwide offices have joined together to donate $30,000.00 to the Gaming Industry Katrina Relief Fund. JCM's offices in Osaka, Hong Kong, Sydney, Düsseldorf, London and the U.S. all joined in the effort to assist the hurricane relief effort. Established by the American Gaming Association, the goal of the fund is to provide disaster relief and assistance to affected gaming employees in Mississippi and Louisiana.

JCM is also a member of the Association of Gaming Equipment Manufacturers (AGEM), which is donating $50,000.00 to relief efforts.

JCM American President Aki Isoi said, "Words cannot adequately describe our shock at the situation or begin to ease the pain of those affected. But we are proud to be members of two organizations that are acting quickly to help, and we are very pleased that our international offices are joining us in this effort."
